PLAYER STATISTICS

The player appearance statistics in this album refer to league appearances only and therefore do not include appearances in cup, or other competitions. Career appearance and goal totals include the league appearance and goal statistics as of the end of the 1999/2000 season. Where player data is not available, for example for overseas players whose data is unknown by the clubs, it has been omitted. It is marked in the text by "-".

Country Abbreviations:

Editor's Note:

The final date for compiling this album was October 26, 2000. All reasonable efforts were made to ensure that the data was accurate at that time. Player transfers and/or managerial changes after that date were, of course beyond our control.

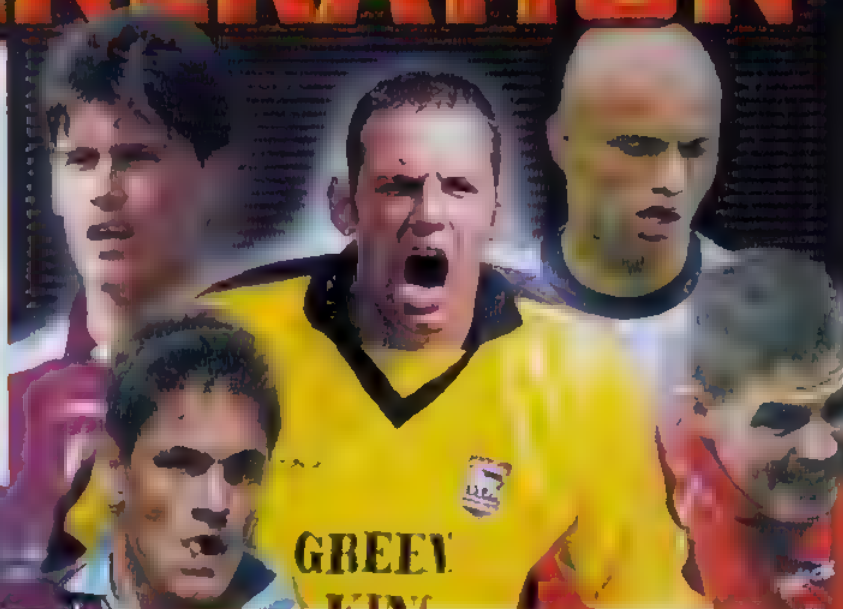
McDONALD'S™ NEW GENERATION

The Premier League's young footballers are among the most exciting in Europe and many of them have all the skills to be the world superstars of tomorrow. McDonald's, the Official Restaurant of the Premier League, understands all about DEVELOPING young talent and have teamed up with Merlin to exclusively profile five of the Premier League's brightest young talents. Tipped to be at the forefront of English football's resurgence in world football, McDonald's recommend watching out for THE NEW GENERATION.


PAST A successful graduate of Liverpool's famous academy, he made his debut against Blackburn aged 18 and has quickly developed into a consistent performer for the Reds.

PRESENT Steven is one of England's most outstanding midfield prospects, his tenacity, determination and impressive all-round ability on the ball has set him apart as a player of genuine quality.

FUTURE Capped for the first time just before the European Championships, his career at club and international level is certainly going to be a long one as his experience and talent evolves.

PAST Snapped up by Villa from third division Brighton & Hove Albion and fast-tracked into their Premiership starting line-up where he made his debut aged only 17.

PRESENT One of the game's most composed and versatile defenders, he's strong on the ball and isn't frightened to instigate an attack when the opportunity arises.

FUTURE Excellent captain material for club and country and as England's exceptional left-footed prospect, he is an essential player at international level for many years to come.

PAST: Made his senior debut just 63 days past his 17th birthday and backed up the incredible hype surrounding his talents with confident, impressive performances in his opening games for the Hammers.

PRESENT: Has earned his place in West Ham's starting line-up on merit and matures with every game. A fierce work-rate and superb passing ability match his unbelievable skill on the ball.

FUTURE: Joe has all the potential to rule the roost at international level. His catalogue of tricks, twists and impossible turns are a massive inspiration to the players around him.

PAST: Made his Ipswich debut aged just 17 and made Portman Road's number one shirt his own before he was 20. A 'veteran' of over 200 league appearances, he's Ipswich's most dependable player.

PRESENT: Finally displaying his talents in the Premier League, his reputation is further enhanced by his confident and athletic performances as the last man in Ipswich's defence.

FUTURE: Poised to make a serious claim on England's number one jersey sooner rather than later. Continued good form in the Premiership will make him a genuine contender in England's senior squad.

WES BROWN

PAST: Justified his reputation as a leading product of Manchester United's successful youth system when he made an impressive Premier League debut against Leeds in 1998.

PRESENT: Battled back well from serious injury and has again proved his worth in United's defence. Quick, competitive and capable of playing anywhere across the back-line.

FUTURE: Will mature rapidly in United's all-conquering team to become one of their key players. Already an international, his experiences with United will make him an even better player as his outstanding potential is fulfilled.
